PRESIDENT: Senator Richard Maresch.

SENATOR MARESH: Mr. President, members of the Legislature, this would specify...or would clarify that supervisors, I have some in my district, could also serve on this Board. I move that this be adopted.

PRESIDENT: Senator Barnett.

SENATOR BARNETT: Mr. Chairman, I've got a question of Senator Maresch. I'm going to have to have you go back over that. The supervisor is what in your county?

SENATOR MARESH: It's the same duty. County board members... there are commissioners and there are supervisors. The different form of government, township form of county government...

SENATOR BARNETT: What does your amendment come in?

SENATOR MARESH: Page 2, line 6. We would add "or supervisors" after....

SENATOR BARNETT: Two county commissioners or supervisors?

SENATOR MARESH: Right.

SENATOR BARNETT: Okay. You're telling me that supervisors are the same as county commissioners?

SENATOR MARESH: Right.

SENATOR BARNETT: We have some counties that don't have county commissioners?

SENATOR MARESH: Right. I've got Fillmore County in my district.

SENATOR BARNETT: Well, by golly, you learn something new everyday. Thank you.

PRESIDENT: Senator Maresch, are you ready for the vote?
